LITIGATION EXPERT MICHAEL CORSO TO DISCUSS DRONE LAW TO FEDERATION OF DEFENSE & CORPORATE COUNSEL MEMBERS

Fort Myers, Florida — Henderson, Franklin, Starnes & Holt, P.A. is pleased to announce that Florida Civil Trial Expert Michael Corso will present “Rise of the Drones: Current UAV/UAS Law Landscape” on March 24 to members of the Federation of Defense & Corporate Counsel (“FDCC”). The FDCC is an international association of vetted defense and corporate counsel and industry executives dedicated to leading the profession by advancing the principles of integrity, professionalism and fair civil justice. Corso, who is also an aerospace engineer, will discuss the state of the law with regard to drone safety campaigns, FAA drone regulations and enforcement, federal and state legislation, and Fourth Amendment protections.

Corso has been Florida Bar Board Certified in Civil Trial Law for over 35 years and over 20 years in Business Litigation Law. His trial practice area is heavily involved in the defense of non-medical professionals (including lawyers, accountants, architects, engineers and surveyors), copyright/trademark infringement, product liability and tobacco litigation. Corso speaks throughout the United States and the American Institute of Architects (AIA) recently published his article, “An Architect’s Guide to Using Drones.”

Corso has received numerous awards throughout his legal career including the Outstanding Aerospace Engineer Award from Purdue University and the Florida Defense Lawyers Association President’s Award. He has also been recognized as a “Top Lawyer” by Naples Illustrated magazine (2018-2020) and named to the “Top 100” list of Florida Super Lawyers (2019-2021), who previously wrote about Corso’s career in “My lawyer, the Rocket Scientist.”

Prior to joining Henderson Franklin, Corso was a Captain in the United States Air Force and completed his military career in the JAG lawyer program. He received his undergraduate degree in Aeronautics and Astronautics from Purdue University (B.S., 1971) and his law degree from Villanova University (J.D., 1974).
