QURESHI ELECTED TO THE ABUSE COUNSELING & TREATMENT'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Fort Myers, Florida — The law firm of Henderson, Franklin, Starnes & Holt, P.A., is pleased to announce that Business & Tax Attorney Sara Qureshi has joined the Abuse Counseling & Treatment, Inc.'s ("ACT") Board of Directors. ACT is a private, not-for-profit agency committed to serving victims of domestic violence, sexual assault and human trafficking.

Qureshi focuses her practice in business organization operations and planning, mergers and acquisitions, federal and state taxation, intellectual property, and health care law. She is fluent in Urdu and Hindi. Qureshi also serves as the Social Chair for the Lee County Bar Association Young Lawyers Division.

While attending law school, Qureshi served as the Editor-in-Chief of the Child and Family Law Journal and as the Executive Board Treasurer for the National Conference of Law Reviews. She also volunteered as a certified tax preparer with Barry Law's Volunteer Income Tax Program and served as a legal intern for the Middle District of Florida and Ninth Judicial Circuit for Orange County.

Qureshi is a graduate of Cape Coral High School. She obtained her B.S. in Legal Studies from Florida Gulf Coast University (magna cum laude) in 2014. Upon receiving her Juris Doctor from Barry University Dwayne O. Andreas School of Law (magna cum laude) in 2017, Qureshi continued her education at the University of Florida, Fredric G. Levin College of Law and obtained her Master of Laws (LL.M.) in Taxation, graduating at the top of her class in 2018.
