Fort Myers, Florida — Henderson, Franklin, Starnes & Holt, P.A., is pleased to announce that Robert V. White has joined the firm as an associate in the Tort and Insurance Litigation Department. His niche is representing insureds involved in motor vehicle accidents, premises liability, and construction defect matters. He is admitted to practice in Florida and Alabama.

White brings over a decade of experience to the firm, working at both the statewide and local levels. He enjoys the challenge of navigating difficult liability lawsuits and invests himself to uncover every detail to effectively present the best possible defense. In 2021, Best Lawyers in America named Robert as “One to Watch,” noting his work in construction litigation. Robert Shearman, chair of the Tort and Insurance Department, shares:

“Many of our lawyers have worked on cases with Robert in the past and have a great deal of respect for him personally and professionally. We know Robert will hit the ground running and be a valuable asset to our clients and our litigation team.”

White, a former sports writer, grew up in Birmingham, Alabama, and remains a passionate Crimson Tide football fan. He is a member of the Lee County Bar Association and Sigma Pi Fraternity.

White received his undergraduate degree from the University of Alabama and his J.D. from the Mississippi College School of Law.
