AMANDA BARRITT AMONG INAUGURAL CLASS OF FLORIDA CONDOMINIUM & PLANNED DEVELOPMENT EXPERTS

Fort Myers, Florida — Henderson, Franklin, Starnes & Holt, P.A., is pleased to announce that Attorney Amanda Barritt has achieved the highest certification by The Florida Bar in Condominium & Planned Development Law. Board certified lawyers' experience and competency have been rigorously evaluated and have met the Bar's highest standards for special knowledge, skills and proficiency in various areas of law and professionalism and ethics in the practice of law.

Barritt is Chair of Henderson Franklin's Condominium and Homeowners' Associations practice group. She represents residential and commercial condominium, homeowners' and property owners' associations, non-profit social and recreational clubs, developers, builders and individuals in all aspects of real estate development, operation, and condominium and property association law. Barritt also handles general real estate legal matters, including drafting contracts and managing title issues in all types of real estate transactions. Barritt speaks often to community association management groups and writes on these topics on Henderson Franklin's blog, "The Legal Scoop on Southwest Florida Real Estate." She holds the highest AV rating by Martindale Hubbell.

Barritt is a member of the Real Estate Investment Society, Real Property Probate & Trust Section and Condominium and Planned Development Committee of The Florida Bar, Lee County Bar Association, and Lee County Association of Women Lawyers. She is also the leader of her daughters' Girl Scout troop, and a member of an allocations team for the United Way of Lee, Hendry, Glades and Okeechobee Counties.

Barritt received her undergraduate degree from Auburn University (B.I.D., cum laude, 1999) and her law degree from Florida State University (J.D., cum laude, 2003). She can be reached at 239.344.1108.
