

For Immediate Release

January 22, 2020

Hill Hill Carter Welcomes Attorney Courtney Morman to the Firm

Montgomery, AL— January 22, 2020: Hill Hill Carter is pleased to announce the addition of Attorney Courtney Morman to the firm. Ms. Morman will be based in Hill Hill Carter's Birmingham office.

Ms. Morman has vast experience litigating employment law matters in federal and state courts. Additionally, Ms. Morman has extensive experience advising employers regarding pre-litigation employment solutions, including investigating complaints of discrimination and harassment, conducting in-house training, and developing workplace policies and procedures. At Hill Hill Carter, Ms. Morman will provide legal guidance on a full spectrum of labor and employment law issues, including, but not limited to, discrimination and harassment claims.

"Ms. Morman has an excellent and established reputation in employment law," said David W. Henderson, Managing Shareholder of Hill Hill Carter. "Complementing her litigation practice, Ms. Morman will provide day-to-day advice and counsel to employers regarding the panoply of laws that govern and affect the employment relationship, with special emphasis on litigation avoidance strategies."

Ms. Morman graduated from Louisiana State University in 2007. She received her Juris Doctorate in 2011 from Cumberland School of Law, Samford University. A member of the Alabama State Bar Association and the Birmingham Bar Association, she resides in Birmingham with her husband, Jeff, and their daughter, Caroline Chase.

Hill, Hill, Carter offers a full range of legal services, from business planning to complex litigation. Representing clients throughout the state and the Southeast, the firm's primary practice areas include business law, commercial and complex litigation, education, governmental entities, healthcare cost recovery, insurance defense, labor and, tax and estate, and worker's compensation defense. The firm has offices in Montgomery, Birmingham, and Fairhope, Alabama, as well as Louisville, Kentucky. For more information, please visit www.hillhillcarter.com. For more information, please visit <https://www.hillhillcarter.com/> or call 334.834.7600.