

For Immediate Release

August 12, 2021

Hill Hill Carter Welcomes Attorney Daniel T. Seawell to the Firm

BIRMINGHAM, AL – Montgomery, AL — Hill Hill Carter Franco Cole & Black, P.C. is pleased to announce Attorney Daniel T. Seawell has joined the firm in its Fairhope office. Daniel's practice focuses on civil defense litigation, primarily in insurance, transportation, and workers' compensation defense.

"We are excited to welcome Daniel to our team," said Managing Shareholder David W. Henderson. "He is an accomplished attorney and will be a valuable addition."

Licensed in both Alabama and Mississippi, Daniel has years of experience in litigating automobile liability, personal injury, and worker's compensation cases in both Alabama and Mississippi.

"I am very honored to join Hill Hill Carter's Fairhope office," said Daniel. "I am excited for this great opportunity to build upon Hill Hill Carter's legacy and help it serve clients in Alabama and Mississippi."

Daniel received his Juris Doctor from the University of Mississippi School of Law in 2015 after receiving his Bachelor of Arts from Auburn University in 2011. Daniel is a member of the American Bar Association, the Federal Bar Association, the Mobile County Bar Association, and the Baldwin County Bar Association. He is licensed to practice in the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals in Mississippi, the Southern District of Mississippi, the Northern District of Mississippi, and the Southern District of Alabama.

Daniel resides in Mobile with his wife, Kayla, and his Springer Spaniel Finn.

###

Hill, Hill, Carter offers a full range of legal services, from business planning to complex litigation. Representing clients throughout the state and the Southeast, the firm's primary practice areas include business law, commercial and complex litigation, education, governmental entities, healthcare cost recovery, insurance defense, labor and, tax and estate, and worker's compensation defense. The firm has offices in Montgomery, Birmingham, and Fairhope, Alabama, as well as Louisville, Kentucky. For more information, please visit <https://www.hillhillcarter.com/> or call 334.834.7600.