

PRESS RELEASE

JANUARY 3, 2019

Manning Gross + Massenburg ("MG+M") and Kurowski Shultz LLC today announced the completion of their merger. The combined national law firm is known as MG+M. "For the past two decades, the lawyers of MG+M and Kurowski Shultz have worked together on local and national accounts in all aspects of product liability and tort litigation, especially asbestos litigation. In doing so, we came to operate as de facto partners. This merger merely formalizes our longstanding relationship," said John B. Manning, Partner, MG+M. The strategic combination of the two firms brings together renowned litigators with unsurpassed expertise, serving clients ranging from individuals and small businesses to Fortune 500 companies and iconic business brands. The firm also provides a broad range of other legal services.

MG+M now has 14 offices in key jurisdictions across the United States. Each office has the independent ability to handle all aspects of complex local and national matters within the firm's practice areas, including product liability litigation, toxic tort and asbestos litigation, maritime litigation, construction litigation, business and corporate litigation, government affairs, and more.

