McNees Attorney to Serve on Arts Board

Harrisburg, Pa. – (January 30, 2018) McNees Wallace & Nurick Attorney Mark M. Van Blargan recently was approved for his first term of service as a member of the Susquehanna Arts Museum Board of Directors.

Mark is chair of the firm's Healthcare group and a member of the Education Law group. His practice focuses on serving large healthcare providers and college and universities. Mark started his career at the firm, became in-house counsel for a large health system in Pennsylvania, and rejoined the firm in 1997.

For some clients, Mark acts as outside general counsel. For other clients, he acts as special counsel, particularly for complex mergers and acquisitions.

Mark has been named to The Best Lawyers in America list every year since 2006, and as a Local Legal Leader in 2015 and 2016. He received his A.B. from Syracuse University and his J.D. with honors from the Villanova University School of Law. He is a member of the American Bar Association's Forum on Healthcare Law, the Pennsylvania Bar Association's committee on Health and Hospital Law, the Dauphin County Bar Association, the National Health Lawyers Association, the Hospital Association of Pennsylvania, and is vice chair of the WITF Board of Directors.

Nestled within the Capital City's emerging midtown neighborhood in a newly reclaimed building, the Susquehanna Art Museum serves as a catalyst in the Commonwealth to offer educationally superior programming and diversely extraordinary exhibitions.
