Attorney James Franklin Named Chair of McNees Personal Injury Practice Group

HARRISBURG, Pa. – (January 8, 2019) McNees Wallace & Nurick LLC appoints James Franklin as Chair of its Personal Injury Practice Group, succeeding recently retired attorney Guy Brooks.

In addition to being Chair of the McNees Personal Injury Practice Group, James also practices in the Litigation and Transportation, Distribution & Logistics Groups. He has substantial experience representing both plaintiffs and defendants and both businesses and individuals. James possesses a unique ability to assess a case from all angles and to anticipate the possible challenges and arguments by opposing parties.

The McNees Personal Injury team is committed to helping individuals receive fair and full compensation for their physical and emotional injuries caused by another's negligence or carelessness. The entire McNees team provides personal and prompt attention to help clients navigate through an unexpected, challenging, and frightening time in their lives.
