McNees Labor & Employment Attorney Elected President of the York Bar Association

HARRISBURG, Pa. – (January 8, 2020) McNees Wallace & Nurick LLC is pleased to announce that attorney Anne Zerbe was elected President of the York County Bar Association (YCBA).

The YCBA is a non-profit professional membership association of attorneys and judges that exists to serve the needs of lawyers, judges and the York County community. The Association dedicates itself to providing services and benefits to enable the success of its member attorneys; promoting a legal and judicial system where the rights of all persons can be asserted, defined and protected; developing mutual trust and confidence among the members of the Bar, between the Bench and the Bar, and between the Bar and the community at large; educating the public on legal matters; and striving for the highest standards of ethical conduct.

Anne Zerbe is in the McNees Labor & Employment Practice Group where she focuses her practice on prevention of employment liability, defending against employment claims and assisting clients with compliance issues concerning the multitude of employment laws and regulations governing employers. Anne counsels employers, practice groups and health care providers on employment law compliance, risk management and HIPAA compliance. Additionally, she serves as special counsel for investigations and is a trusted resource to handle executive terminations.
