McNees Paralegal Named 2018 Outstanding Paralegal of the Year

HARRISBURG, Pa. – (October 15, 2018) McNees Wallace & Nurick LLC paralegal Anne Marchand Stanko was recognized by the Central Pennsylvania Paralegal Association (CPPA) as 2018 Outstanding Paralegal of the Year. The award was presented Wednesday, October 10, 2018 at the association’s “Take an Attorney to Lunch” event.

The CPPA, a non-profit professional association comprised of paralegals, paralegal students, and related organizations throughout the local area, chooses the recipient of this yearly award from nominations provided by supervising attorneys associated with the paralegal members.

Anne, who has been a paralegal for more than 35 years, was chosen for her commitment to the legal profession, high quality of work, leadership and presence in the community.

Jon Andrews, Co-Chair of the McNees Real Estate Group said, “We are incredibly proud of Anne for receiving this award. Anne provides exceptional value to our clients and her professionalism, dedication and character benefit all of us who work with her.”

Anne works in the McNees Real Estate Practice Group where she specializes in transactional work, focusing on representation of buyers, sellers, lenders and borrowers in connection with the acquisition and financing of real estate.
