Attorneys Sarah Dotzel, Erica Koser and Erica Townes Join McNees

HARRISBURG – McNees Wallace & Nurick LLC announced the hire of three new associate attorneys. Joining the firm are Sarah Dotzel, Erica M. Koser and Erica Townes.

Dotzel is an associate in the Litigation practice group. She received her J.D. from Vanderbilt Law School and her undergraduate degree from the University of Notre Dame. While in law school, she served as an executive board member of Vanderbilt's Journal of Entertainment and Technology Law. She spent her summers interning for the U.S. Attorney's Office in Baltimore, Md. and McNees. Dotzel works in McNees' Harrisburg office.

Koser is an associate in the Financial Services and Public Finance practice groups. She received her J.D. from the George Washington University Law School and her undergraduate degree from the Shippensburg University of Pennsylvania. While in law school, she was a member of the Moot Court Board and served as a board member of GW's Public Contract Law Journal. She spent her summers interning for the National Association of College and University Attorneys and McNees. Koser works in McNees' Harrisburg Office.

Townes is an associate in the Labor & Employment practice group. While in law school, Townes served on the Executive Board of the Widener Law Journal and Vice President of the Moot Court Honor Society. Townes also student clerked for the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania and Commonwealth Court of Pennsylvania, Honorable P. Kevin Brobson.

During law school, Townes also participated in the Central Pennsylvania Civil Law Clinic, representing indigent clients, where she gained experience in labor and employment and family law matters. She was also an active member of several student organizations, including the Student Bar Association where she served as Vice President. She spent her summers interning for McNees and works in the firm's Harrisburg office.
