McNees Estate Planning Attorney Teaching at Dickinson Law School

HARRISBURG, Pa. – (October 9, 2019) McNees Wallace & Nurick LLC attorney Andrew Rusniak is teaching the course "Wills, Trusts, and Estates" this semester at Dickinson Law School.

Andrew's course is providing 2nd and 3rd year law students with an understanding of the disposition of property at death by intestate succession and by will; the execution, revocation, construction, and contest of wills; and limits on the power to dispose of property by will. The course also examines the creation, purposes and termination of trusts, including informal trusts, and the interrelationship between trusts and wills.

Andrew practices in the McNees Estate Planning and Corporate & Tax Practice Groups where he represents individuals, families, business owners, executives and professionals in all aspects of tax and estate planning, business succession planning, asset protection planning, charitable planning and estate and trust administration.
