McNees Paralegal Becomes President of Ladies First – a Nonprofit Organization Dedicated to Supporting Women in the Public Finance Industry

HARRISBURG, Pa. – (November 18, 2019) McNees Wallace & Nurick LLC paralegal Terry Snyder was elected President of Ladies First – The Mid-Atlantic Women's Public Finance Forum and will serve in this role through 2020.

Ladies First is a professional association that provides educational opportunities, as well as mentoring and networking opportunities to enhance and expand the role of women in the public finance industry.

Terry is a paralegal in the McNees Financial Services and Public Finance & Government Services Practice Groups. With more than 35 years of experience in the municipal and private sector finance industries, she is well-versed in handling general obligation issues, indentured transactions, direct bank loans and TIF financings. She also assists lawyers with the drafting of documents, organization of documentation, and coordination and settlement of transactions.
