Attorneys from McNees Wallace & Nurick Speak at 2017 Central Pennsylvania Business Leaders' Summit

HARRISBURG – McNees Wallace & Nurick attorneys Salvatore Bauccio, Devin Chwastyk, Michael Hund, Kelley Kaufman and Nicole Kaylor made a presentation at the 2017 Central Pennsylvania Business Leaders Summit on Nov. 7 at the Hollywood Casino in Grantville, Pa.

The summit offered a full day of local and regional business leaders to highlight timely, comprehensive updates on key topics relevant to both public and private companies. This third annual event was sponsored by McNees along with, BDO USA LLP and Murphy McCormack Capital Advisors.

Specific topics included mergers and acquisitions, tax reform, revenue recognition, ransomware and employment law. Special guest speaker, Ryan Unger, President and CEO of Team Pennsylvania, delivered the keynote presentation.

Baucchio is a member of the Corporate & Tax and Healthcare Practice Groups at McNees, Bauccio focuses on mergers and acquisitions, corporate law, real estate transactions and venture capital/private placements. He serves as outside general counsel and transaction counsel to clients in various industries, including healthcare, hospitality, manufacturing and real estate.

Chwastyk is the chairman of the McNees Privacy & Data Security Group. He also speaks and frequently writes about cybersecurity issues and the legal risks.

Hund is a member of the Corporate & Tax, Healthcare, Intellectual Property, Public Finance, Privacy & Data Security and Mergers & Acquisitions practice groups, represents publicly held and privately held businesses, as well as early-stage technology companies and investors who acquire interests in such companies. He regularly provides legal advice to companies on compliance with federal securities laws, including exemptions from the registration provisions of such laws.

Kaufman practices in the firm's Automotive Dealership, Labor & Employment, and Education practice groups. She performs pro-bono work for non-profit organizations and businesses, and regularly defends clients before the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission, and the Pennsylvania Unemployment Compensation Board of Review, as well as in employment-related litigation in federal and state court.

Kaylor is a member of the Corporate & Tax Group where her practice focuses on mergers and acquisitions. She counsels businesses throughout the transportation, manufacturing, service and financial services industries in structuring, negotiating and implementing a wide variety of merger and acquisition transactions. Also, Kaylor regularly represents clients in capital raising efforts, including commercial lending, private placements and private equity transactions.
