McNees Attorney to Present During McKonly & Asbury's Employee Benefits Webinar

HARRISBURG, Pa. – (November 20, 2019) McNees Wallace & Nurick LLC attorney Renée Lieux is slated to present during McKonly & Asbury's webinar entitled "Employee Benefit Plans Industry Update" on November 21, 2019.

Renée will join Dan Sturm and Danielle Ginter of McKonly & Asbury in the presentation covering compliance with ERISA; expansion of the IRS self-correction program; cybersecurity; recent ERISA court cases and lessons learned; and an accounting and legal update.

Renée practices in the McNees Labor & Employment Practice Group where she focuses on executive compensation and employee benefits. She assists both private and publicly traded companies in the negotiation of employment agreements, severance agreements and plans, and director and executive compensation programs. She designs, assists in the implementation of, and analyzes non-qualified deferred compensation plans, equity compensation plans, and cafeteria plans. Clients also seek her assistance with the administration, compliance, and termination of defined contribution plans, defined benefit plans, profit sharing plans, 401(k) plans, and employee stock purchase plans.
