McNees Attorney to Provide Labor & Employment Law Update in Scranton, Pa.

HARRISBURG, Pa. – (February 24, 2020) McNees Wallace & Nurick LLC, in partnership with the Greater Scranton Chamber of Commerce, will host a Business Breakfast Briefing at the Hilton Scranton & Conference Center on Friday, March 13, 2020, where McNees attorney Joe Sileo will present “Keeping an Eye on Pennsylvania Employment Laws-Part 2.” The presentation runs from 8:00 a.m. to 9:30 a.m., with complimentary breakfast and registration beginning at 7:30 a.m.

Joe, an experienced labor and employment attorney, will offer guidance and recommendations to human resource teams regarding select state-specific Pennsylvania employment laws, including the Wage Payment and Collection Law (WPCL); Inspection of Employment Records Law; and Criminal Records History Information Act. He will also discuss new and pending state employment-related legislation.

The program is approved for CLE, SHRM and HRCI credits.

Joe regularly advises clients in employment-related issues, including wage and hour compliance, work performance management, discipline, equal opportunity and fair employment practices, hiring practices and termination decisions, litigation avoidance, employee leave issues, retaliation, non-compete and separation agreements, unemployment compensation, and also in connection with collective bargaining administration and arbitration matters. He also frequently represents employers in connection with OSHA and Wage and Hour matters. In addition, he regularly defends employers in discrimination cases and other employment-related litigation, in federal and state court as well as in administrative proceedings before the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and state employment practice agencies.
