McNees Attorney Elected to Hospice and Community Care Board

Lancaster, Pa. – (February 28, 2018) McNees Wallace & Nurick LLC Attorney Stephanie Carfley recently was elected to the Board of Directors of Hospice and Community Care (formerly Hospice of Lancaster County). Stephanie has previously served on the Board of Directors of Hospice of Lancaster County from 2004 through 2012, serving on the Executive Committee from 2005 through 2012 and as Treasurer for several years. She is a past member of the Lancaster Family YMCA Board of Directors and the Board of Directors for Girls on the Run of Lancaster.

Stephanie is a member of the firm's Litigation, Injunction, Oil & Natural Gas, and Pipeline and Oil/Gas Infrastructure Practice Groups, where she focuses on business and commercial litigation and dispute resolution in areas such as employment, business torts, oil and gas, real estate, health care, insurance and other civil litigation.

Stephanie is a 1996 graduate of the University of Pittsburgh School of Law and a 1993 cum laude graduate of Bucknell University where she was a four-year starter on the varsity field hockey team and a two-time selection to the National Academic Field Hockey Squad for Division I.

Immediately following law school, Stephanie was a Judicial Law Clerk to the Honorable David E. Grine, Court of Common Pleas of Centre County.
