McNees Attorney to Present at PBI's Employment Law Institute

HARRISBURG, Pa. – (April 22, 2019) McNees Wallace & Nurick LLC attorney Anne Zerbe is slated to present twice at the Pennsylvania Bar Institute's Employment Law Institute 2019 in Philadelphia on Wednesday, April 24, 2019.

Anne, along with Scott Goldshaw Esq. and Becky McClure of the York Container Company, will be featured in the session, "What to Do if You Think Your Employee Is Abusing the FMLA or ADA...or If Your Employer Is Trying to Make Leave Difficult." They will use several hypothetical situations and an interactive format to explore some of the trickiest FMLA and ADA situations that arise in the real world.

Later in the day, Anne will present "ADA Survivor" with Jennifer Bell Esq., Jeffrey Campolongo Esq., Jonathan Krause Esq. and Daniel Johns Esq. Using a panel game show approach, they will address legal concepts under the Americans with Disabilities Act; leave as a reasonable accommodation; the use of "drop dead" policies to address extended disability leave; and how to apply legal principles to a hypothetical scenario.

Anne Zerbe is in the McNees Labor & Employment Practice Group where she focuses her practice on prevention of employment liability, defending against employment claims and assisting clients with compliance issues concerning the multitude of employment laws and regulations governing employers. She also counsels employers, practice groups and health care providers on employment law compliance, risk management and HIPAA compliance. Additionally, she serves as special counsel for investigations and is a trusted resource to handle executive terminations.
