McNees Labor & Employment Attorney to Present on Wage & Hour Compliance at Business Breakfast Briefing

HARRISBURG, Pa. – (May 28, 2019) McNees Wallace & Nurick LLC, in partnership with the Greater Scranton Chamber of Commerce, will host a Business Breakfast Briefing at the Hilton Scranton & Conference Center on Friday, June 7, where McNees attorney Joe Sileo will present “The Thorny Aspects Wage & Hour Compliance.” The presentation runs from 8:00 a.m. to 9:30 a.m., with complimentary breakfast and registration beginning at 7:30 a.m.

Joe, an experienced labor and employment attorney, will discuss some of the more important and thorny aspects of wage and hour compliance and provide practical guidance so that proactive employers can take steps necessary to avoid hidden “traps” and common mistakes and pitfalls.

Joe regularly advises clients in employment-related issues, including wage and hour compliance, work performance management, discipline, equal opportunity and fair employment practices, hiring practices and termination decisions, litigation avoidance, employee leave issues, retaliation, non-compete and separation agreements, unemployment compensation, and also in connection with collective bargaining administration and arbitration matters. He also frequently represents employers in connection with OSHA and Wage and Hour matters. In addition, he regularly defends employers in discrimination cases and other employment-related litigation, in federal and state court as well as in administrative proceedings before the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and state employment practice agencies.
