McNees Attorney Kathy Granbois Elected Chair of United Way of Lancaster County

LANCASTER, Pa. – McNees attorney, Kathy Granbois was elected Chair of the United Way of Lancaster County Board of Directors at a board meeting held on June 8. She will serve a two-year term.

Prior to being elected as Chair, Granbois served as Vice Chair of Finance and Administration for the United Way of Lancaster County since 2014 and Chair Elect since 2016.

“Kathy’s leadership skills and commitment to client service in her professional life fit perfectly in her role as Chair,” David M. Kleppinger, the Chairman of McNees Wallace & Nurick LLC, said. “She will excel at the challenging role of serving the constituents of the United Way of Lancaster County, just as she excels in her law practice.”

Granbois practices in the Corporate & Tax, Mergers & Acquisitions, Securities, and International Law practice groups in McNees’ Lancaster office. A resident of Lancaster, Granbois focuses her practice in corporate and business law, including mergers and acquisitions, entity formation, corporate finance, joint ventures, sales and distribution, and commercial matters, for clients ranging in size from family-owned businesses, to publicly traded companies. Her practice also includes the formation and counseling of nonprofit corporations.

Granbois received her J.D. from the Dickinson School of Law and her undergraduate degree from Bucknell University. She is admitted to practice in Pennsylvania and the U.S. Supreme Court and is a member of the Pennsylvania Bar and Lancaster Bar Associations.

In addition to her involvement with the United Way, Granbois is active in the community, having served as a mentor in the Lancaster Chamber of Commerce Women in Business mentoring program, long time fundraising chair of the Lancaster Youth Amateur Hockey League, and volunteer for Assets of Lancaster.
