McNees Paralegal Gains Position on YWCA Junior Board

HARRISBURG, Pa. – (August 20, 2018) McNees Wallace & Nurick LLC paralegal, Beth Bell, will serve on the YWCA of Greater Harrisburg Junior Board after being elected by the Executive Committee.

The mission of the YWCA of Greater Harrisburg is to eliminate racism, empower women, and promote peace, justice, freedom and dignity for all. The role of a Junior Board member is to mentor and foster those who have a desire to serve the community; and to become familiar with, raise awareness of, and raise funds in support of the mission and operations of the YWCA.

Beth, a Pennsylvania Certified Paralegal, assists the McNees Corporate & Tax and State & Local Tax Practice groups. She offers general support, helps to manage cases and oversees document productions. Beth is on the Advisory Board at Central Pennsylvania College, providing advice to its legal department regarding its degree program, along with insight on the practice of law. She was elected as the 1st Vice President of the Central Pennsylvania Paralegal Association earlier this year.

The next YWCA Junior Board meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, September 11, 2018.
