McNees Wallace & Nurick Hold Living in Harmony in Lancaster Seminar

LANCASTER, Pa. – McNees Wallace & Nurick LLC held a free seminar entitled “Living in Harmony in Lancaster: Land Planning, Development & Conservation” on August 24th at Clipper Magazine Stadium.

Lancaster County is one of the most beautiful counties in the United States. It is also one of the most diverse counties with respect to land use. It has a unique combination of family farms, businesses, manufacturing, rural communities, suburban communities, city living and space preservation. In this seminar a panel of experts explored the future of land use in Lancaster County and discussed how the various interests can live in harmony and preserve the very diverse and unique character of the county.

The panel was moderated by Crystal Clark of the McNees Lancaster Office. Introductory remarks were made by Dennis Stuckey, Chairman of the Lancaster County Commissioners.

The panelists included Robert P. Bowman, President of the Charter Homes Group; James Cowhey, Executive Director of the Lancaster County Planning Commission; Mark C. Fitzgerald, Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of High Real Estate Group LLC; and Philip R. Wenger, President and CEO of the Lancaster County Conservancy.

Following the seminar, attendees were invited to join the speakers for complimentary food and beverages and the Lancaster Barnstormers baseball game against the Southern Maryland Blue Crabs.
