McNees Hosts Food & Beverage Seminar at Hollywood Casino

HARRISBURG – McNees Wallace & Nurick hosted its first Food & Beverage Seminar on September 14 at the Hollywood Casino in Grantville, Pa.

The seminar focused on current trends in the food and beverage industry and featured McNees attorneys covering issues in marketing, labor and employment and recalls, with a closing panel discussion on the latest developments facing the industry.

Pennsylvania Secretary of Agriculture Russell C. Redding delivered the Keynote Address, and panelists included food regulatory/nutrition scientist Joan Apgar, formerly of the Hershey Company, John Daly, the Food and Beverage Manager of the Hotel Hershey, Rich DiFrischia, Vice President and General Counsel of Knouse Foods Cooperative, Inc., and Andy Stuffick, Chief of Investigations of the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board.

McNees Food and Beverage attorneys Brian Gregg, Food and Beverage Chair, Fritz Kriete, and Kimberly Selemba served as panelists along with McNees Labor & Employment attorney Adam Santucci, and McNees Intellectual Property attorney Lois Duquette.

Other sessions offered topics including:

- Current Risks in Food and Beverage Marketing
- The Top Five Labor & Employment Issues for the Industry
- You Think You May Need to Issue a Recall – Now What?

Cocktails and networking opportunities followed the seminar.
