McNees Estate Planning Attorney to Present for Pennsylvania Bar Institute

HARRISBURG, Pa. – (September 11, 2019) McNees Wallace & Nurick LLC attorney Vance Antonacci is scheduled to take part in the Pennsylvania Bar Institute course “Administering an Estate in PA: A Step by Step Guide 2019” on Thursday, September 12 in Mechanicsburg.

Vance, along with other estate planning professionals, will review the process of administering a decedent’s estate covering the collecting of assets, locating creditors, paying debts, paying applicable taxes, and distributing remaining assets.

Vance is Chair of the McNees Estate Planning Practice Group. He concentrates on the areas of estate planning, business succession planning, and estate and trust administration. He represents business owners, executives, professionals, and other individuals in all phases of estate planning, including the preparation of wills, various types of trust agreements, charitable planning, and family limited partnerships. In addition, he provides advice on buy-sell agreements and the structuring of business transactions such as asset sales, stock sales, and mergers.
