McNees Attorneys Present Webinar on Pennsylvania Budget

HARRISBURG, Pa. – (September 27, 2018) McNees Wallace & Nurick LLC attorneys Kathleen Bruder and Kathy Pape are slated to present a webinar for the Pennsylvania Society of Tax & Accounting Professionals at 12:30 p.m. on Tuesday, October 2, 2018.

The webinar “The Calm Before the Storm: the 2018/2019 Budget” is approved for a Continuing Professional Education credit. The presentation will provide an overview of the state’s current fiscal year budget that was approved in June 2018 along with updates on pending legislation that will be of interest to tax and accounting professionals.

Kathleen is a member of the McNees Government Relations, Energy & Environmental, Public Sector, Oil & Natural Gas, Pipeline and Oil/Gas Infrastructure, and State & Local Tax Practice Groups. She uses her extensive knowledge of government operations, regulatory and administrative issues, as well as her prior experience as a litigator to help clients of McNees succeed with challenges and opportunities that involve state, federal and local agencies or legislative issues. In addition, she represents clients faced with corporate governance and right to know issues.

Kathy practices in the McNees Government Relations, Public Finance, Financial Services and Public Sector Groups. As a prior CEO, she works to find long term solutions for her municipal clients through collaboration with state government and the private sector. She provides counsel to state and municipal governments, as well as businesses, in public finance, government funding, utility regulation, and partnership structures among state and local governments and business.
