McNees Attorney Serving on Pinnacle Health Foundation Board of Directors

HARRISBURG, Pa. – (September 30, 2019) McNees Wallace & Nurick LLC estate planning attorney Vance Antonacci has joined the Pinnacle Health Foundation Board of Directors.

The Pinnacle Health Foundation is a non-profit organization that supports the work of UMPC Pinnacle through advocacy and philanthropic fundraising. While coordinating efforts to support the needs of UMPC Pinnacle's hospitals, it also strives to improve access to and the quality of care throughout the community.

As Chair of the McNees Estate Planning Practice Group, Vance concentrates on the areas of estate planning, business succession planning, and estate and trust administration. He represents business owners, executives, professionals, and other individuals in all phases of estate planning, including the preparation of wills, various types of trust agreements, charitable planning, and family limited partnerships. In addition, he provides advice on buy-sell agreements and the structuring of business transactions such as asset sales, stock sales, and mergers.
