

Secrest Wardle Executive Partner, Sarah L. Walburn, Authors Chapter in ICLE Damages Handbook

Secrest Wardle Executive Partner, Sarah L. Walburn, has authored Chapter 15, “Attorney Fees,” in the Institute for Continuing Legal Education (ICLE) handbook, Michigan Law of Damages and Other Remedies, 3rd Edition. Chapter 15 touches on general principles, attorney fee requests and determining reasonable attorney fees. Sarah Walburn has contributed to various editions of ICLE publications throughout her career.

ICLE is the leading provider of how-to solutions that harness the wisdom of Michigan’s leading practitioners. ICLE boasts a vast network of leading practitioners who contribute to the creation of content and/or serve in an advisory capacity. Contributors represent the perspective of both small and large firms, and of lawyers in every stage of their career. ICLE contributors are experts in their field and provide content with the practical, how-to focus that is gained from doing the work every day.

Sarah Walburn has defended insurance companies and their insureds in all aspects of motor vehicle, premises liability, and construction litigation for over nine years. Ms. Walburn’s expertise includes first-party, third-party, and provider litigation. She has represented several nationally-known auto insurance companies. Additionally, Ms. Walburn is a published author in the DRI Magazine, Michigan Lawyers Weekly, and the Michigan Bar Journal. She is also a presenter in an ICLE webinar, “Ins and Outs of Informal Discovery.” Ms. Walburn has been named to the list of Michigan Rising Stars in Super Lawyers magazine for 2014-2017. Sarah Walburn has also been recognized among the Michigan Lawyers Weekly Class of 2016 “Women in the Law.”
