

Secret Wardle Welcomes Associate Jacob A. Kahn to Troy Location

Jacob A. Kahn joins Secret Wardle as an Associate at the Firm's Troy office. Mr. Kahn is a member of the Firm's Motor Vehicle Litigation, Premises Liability, and Property, Fire, and Casualty Practice Groups. Mr. Kahn's practice has primarily focused on civil litigation, specifically premises liability, dog bites, automobile negligence, and no-fault law. Mr. Kahn's experience and education strengthen his ability to conduct thorough investigations and expose fraud.

Mr. Kahn received his Bachelor of Science Degree from Michigan State University in Criminal Justice. While attending Michigan State University, he worked for the Michigan State Police Troopers Association (MSPTA). Mr. Kahn aided the MSPTA with a collective bargaining agreement between the Troopers and the State of Michigan. Following completion of his undergraduate degree, Mr. Kahn continued to work for the MSPTA in East Lansing. A few years later, he moved back to Metro Detroit to pursue a career in law. Mr. Kahn interned at the Wayne County Circuit Court with the Honorable David Groner while applying to law school. He followed his mentor's path and elected to attend the University of Detroit Mercy School of Law where he earned his Juris Doctor. During law school, he worked with the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office and became a certified mediator. Mr. Kahn also graduated from the Wayne County Reserve Police Officer Academy and worked for various Oakland County police departments throughout law school.

Mr. Kahn is licensed to practice law in the states of Michigan and California. He was admitted to the State Bar of Michigan in 2017 and is a member of the Insurance and Indemnity Law, and Young Lawyers Sections.
