On September 25, 2017, the Insurance Alliance of Michigan (IAM) held its Annual Claims Seminar at the James B. Henry Center on Michigan State University's East Lansing campus. The seminar was attended by attorneys, vendors, and claims professionals in the insurance industry. Secret Wardle proudly acted as a sponsor of the conference. Four of the Firm's attorneys gave presentations on various topics:

- James Bradley, Executive Managing Partner, Lansing office
"TNCs & Autonomous Vehicles: Does Who's at the Wheel Change Who's on the Hook?"
- Javon David, Associate, Troy office
"Emerging Trends of the Court of Appeals in Summary Disposition Motions Based on Serious Impairment of Bodily Function"
- Amanda Fopma, Partner, Grand Rapids office
"Increase in Hazard Clause and its Application in First Party Claims"
- David Givskud, Partner, Grand Rapids office
"Red Flags to Look for in Spotting PIP Fraud"

The Insurance Institute of Michigan (IIM) joined with the Michigan Insurance Coalition to form the Insurance Alliance of Michigan (IAM) in 2017. The IAM is a government affairs and public information association proud to represent more than 80 property/casualty insurance company-related organizations operating in Michigan. IAM's purpose is to serve the Michigan insurance industry and the insurance consumer as a central focal point for educational, media, legislative and public information on insurance issues.

Secret Wardle is a law firm specializing in defense litigation and counsel for insurance, municipal, and commercial clients headquartered in Troy, Michigan, with additional offices in Grand Rapids and Lansing.
