

Secrest Wardle Partner, Terri L. Antisdale, to Speak at The Institute of Continuing Legal Education (ICLE) 17th Annual Family Law Institute Seminar

Secrest Wardle Partner, Terri L. Antisdale, of the Firm's Troy location, is scheduled to speak alongside Jane Boudreau, of Jane Doe Investigations, at The Institute of Continuing Legal Education (ICLE) 17th Annual Family Law Institute Seminar taking place November 15th and 16th, 2018 at the Suburban Collection Showplace in Novi, Michigan. The premier event attracts nearly 600 practitioners who are able to network with the judicial and court staff, financial experts and peers who share a passion for family law.

Ms. Antisdale and Ms. Boudreau will be presenting, "Private Investigations: The Inside Scoop," on November 15, 2018. Their presentation will discuss how to manage client expectations during the private investigation process and work together to obtain desired results. Attendees will be briefed on the types of legal and illegal investigation tactics and how important a well-executed investigation can be.

Ms. Antisdale is Chair of Secrest Wardle's Family Law Practice Group. She is also a member of the Firm's Motor Vehicle Litigation and Property, Fire and Casualty Practice Groups. With over 22 years of legal experience, Ms. Antisdale has shared in many trial and hearing successes. She provides representation in the areas of adoption assistance, divorce, custody, visitation, child support proceedings, domestic violence (child abuse, personal protection orders, visitation rights), grandparents' rights, paternity rights and post-divorce judgment property litigation. There is no fee for a confidential initial consultation. Ms. Antisdale understands her clients' needs on a personal and compassionate level. She specializes in conflict resolution and represents her clients with great tenacity. She believes in educating her clients throughout the legal process and assists them with making intelligent decisions in areas that may affect their lives going forward.

Secrest Wardle is a law firm specializing in defense litigation and counsel for insurance and commercial clients headquartered in Troy, Michigan, with additional offices in Grand Rapids and Lansing.

Troy • 248-851-9500
Grand Rapids • 616-285-0143
Lansing • 517-886-1224
www.secrestwardle.com

