

Secrest Wardle Executive Partner, Margaret A. Scott, Attends Women Officials Network Quarterly Networking Breakfast

Margaret A. Scott, Secrest Wardle Executive Partner

On March 10, 2017, Women Officials Network (WON) Foundation hosted a Quarterly Networking Breakfast at the Troy Board of Education Building in Troy. Guest Speaker, Laurie Brown, Communications Skills Expert and Author, discussed the topic, “Presenting with Presence and Credibility.” Secrest Wardle Executive Partner and active member of the WON Foundation, Margaret A. Scott, attended the event on behalf of the Firm.

Established in 1997, Women Officials Network is dedicated to encouraging women to become involved in public policy through elected and appointed office. WON provides networking opportunities for women officials and presents training to inspire and empower current and future policy makers.

Margaret Scott is an Executive Partner located in Secrest Wardle’s Troy location. She is a member of the Firm’s Motor Vehicle Litigation, Municipal, and Property, Fire and Casualty Practice Groups. Ms. Scott is a well-known champion in the fight against auto theft and insurance fraud. She received the Bob Sattler Award by the North Central Regional Chapter-International Association of Auto Theft Investigators in 2007. She also received an Award for Professional Excellence for services provided to the Michigan State Police characterized by outstanding performance of duty and a personal commitment to the excellence associated with the prosecution of a 1998 Western Wayne Auto Theft Unit investigation. Ms. Scott has been awarded the William V. Liddane Award by the Help Eliminate Auto Theft (H.E.A.T.) Organization in recognition of her advocacy in reducing auto-theft related crimes in Michigan. Ms. Scott is a member of the Michigan Lawyers Weekly Class of 2015 “Women in the Law,” recognized for her meaningful and inspiring contributions made to the legal community. She is past Chair of the Michigan Anti-Car Theft Campaign Committee. Currently, Ms. Scott serves as Chair of the Michigan Arson Prevention Committee’s Governmental Resource Committee. Ms. Scott has also been awarded a Challenge Coin by the North Oakland County Veteran’s Treatment Court for her involvement in the program in her role as a district court prosecutor.

Secrest Wardle is a law firm specializing in defense litigation and counsel for insurance, municipal, and commercial clients headquartered in Troy, Michigan, with additional offices in Grand Rapids and Lansing.

Troy • 248-851-9500
Grand Rapids • 616-285-0143
Lansing • 517-886-1224
www.secrestwardle.com

