

Secrest Wardle Attorney's Recent Success Published in *Michigan Lawyers Weekly

Secrest Wardle Associate attorney, Amber Rouse Holloway, has been featured in a Michigan Lawyers Weekly article regarding her recent successful result in a first-party (PIP) case. In this case, the Court found that the named insured failed to maintain Michigan insurance to remain eligible for benefits. Therefore, Defendant had no obligation to provide benefits under the Michigan no-fault insurance system.

Amber Rouse Holloway is a member of Secrest Wardle's Motor Vehicle Litigation Practice Group. She specializes in defense litigation of first-party and third-party auto negligence and Michigan Catastrophic Claims Association automobile matters. Ms. Holloway received a Bachelor's degree in Social Work from Oakland University. She earned her Juris Doctorate from Thomas M. Cooley Law School (cum laude.) Ms. Holloway is a member of the State Bar of Michigan, the Wolverine Bar Association and the D. Augustus Straker Bar Association.

Secrest Wardle is a law firm specializing in defense litigation and counsel for insurance, municipal, and commercial clients headquartered in Troy, Michigan, with additional offices in Grand Rapids and Lansing.

Troy • 248-851-9500
Grand Rapids • 616-285-0143
Lansing • 517-886-1224
www.secrestwardle.com

