Vandeventer Black Expands Legal Services in North Carolina

NORFOLK, VA (June 19, 2019)– Vandeventer Black LLP, a business and litigation law firm with an office located in Kitty Hawk, introduces a new residential real estate practice area to its services. The firm has over 28 years of experience providing a variety of legal services in the Outer Banks since 1991.

Geoffrey G. Hemphill, Esq., will lead the residential real estate closings in the region.

“Geoff is the best fit to manage the firm’s new residential real estate portfolio. His charisma, as well as his ability to relate and understand the needs of current and future homeowners, provides him the necessary qualities to ensure the best legal advice and outcome,” said Michael L. Sterling, Managing Partner.

Moreover, Geoff will continue to provide services related to estate planning, business transactions, tax matters, and nonprofit organizations in the OBX. “I look forward to serving the needs of the OBX community,” said Geoff.

The firm’s Kitty Hawk office currently offers the business community legal services that include construction, corporate & business, government contracts, environmental, ERISA & employee benefits, international business, litigation, maritime & admiralty, tax planning, and trust & estates.
