NEWS RELEASE

Vandeventer Black Richmond Office Welcomes Saffelle to the Team

Norfolk, VA (September 17, 2019) - Vandeventer Black LLP is pleased to announce the addition of Robert N. Saffelle to the firm's Richmond office as Of Counsel.

"We are excited to have Rob join our legal team. He is a highly accomplished attorney with extensive experience in the ERISA & Employee Benefits, Labor & Employment, and Tax fields," Michael L. Sterling, Managing Partner. Saffelle is an AV® Distinguished™ by Martindale-Hubbell® and is listed among The Best Lawyers in America® in the field of Employee Benefits (ERISA) Law since 2013.

He focuses his practice on employee compensation and benefits, including pension and profit-sharing plans, welfare benefit plans, fiduciary law, and IRAs. He helps design, establish, and maintain employee benefit programs, including qualified retirement, welfare, and cafeteria plans. He also works with executive compensation plans, including nonqualified deferred compensation, equity-based compensation, and incentive plans.

"Rob will have the support of our team of attorneys as he becomes part of our firm's Business Practice Group in our Richmond office. Our team is excited to work in collaboration with Rob," said Christopher Ambrosio, Business Practice Group Manager.
