NEWS RELEASE

Vandeventer Black Welcomes Tracy Taylor Hague to their Richmond Legal Team

Norfolk, VA (September 19, 2019) – Vandeventer Black LLP is pleased to announce the addition of Tracy Taylor Hague to the firm's Richmond office as Of Counsel. "We are delighted to welcome Tracy to our firm. She has outstanding representative matters that demonstrate a substantial depth of knowledge and experience in her field," Michael L. Sterling, Managing Partner.

Hague, an AV® Preeminent™ rated attorney by Martindale-Hubbell®, has taken hundreds of depositions and has traveled nationwide deposing and defending various experts in complex medical malpractice and other personal injury cases, forming relationships with many of the nation's top medical doctors and other experts. She has tried multiple cases in state and federal courts throughout Virginia. Her practice includes the defense of professionals and general liability cases.

"I am excited to join Vandeventer Black's office in Richmond. The firm has well-established practices in my primary areas of expertise, medical malpractice, and general liability defense. By joining this team, I am able to continue defending my current clients throughout the state," said Hague.

Hague is listed among the Law & Politics magazine's "Super Lawyer Rising Star" section in Professional Liability Defense. For more information, please visit VanBlackLaw.com.
