McNees Opens New Office in York, Pa.

HARRISBURG, Pa. – (July 1, 2019) McNees Wallace & Nurick LLC announces the opening of a York, Pa office. The office will be the eighth location for McNees, headquartered in Harrisburg, Pa, with existing offices in Lancaster; State College; Scranton; Columbus, Oh; Frederick, Md; and Washington, D.C. Newly hired Labor & Employment attorney Anne Zerbe will serve as Managing Partner of the new office located at 316 N. George Street, York PA.

“To better serve our clients, we saw a need to expand our presence in the York area, which over recent years has seen consistent economic growth,” said McNees Chair Brian Jackson. “Anne is a valuable addition to the McNees family with her background and knowledge of the labor and employment industry and her already existing dedication to clients and community service in York.”

Anne, who has more than 20 years of experience defending business clients in county, state and federal courts, joined the McNees Labor & Employment Practice Group as a Member on February 25, 2019. She started her legal career in York in 1996 as a law clerk and served with the District Attorney’s office before entering private practice.

“McNees is an outstanding firm to be a part of,” said Anne. “I am excited for the opportunity to leverage the extensive legal and professional resources of McNees to continue serving the York community.”
