McNees Attorney Hosts Webinar on Health Reimbursement Arrangement Plans

HARRISBURG, Pa. – (July 24, 2019) McNees Wallace & Nurick LLC attorney Renée Lieux presented the webinar “Health Reimbursement Arrangement Plans Update” now being offered by Lorman Education Services.

In the presentation, Renée reviews the benefits of establishing an individual coverage HRA or an excepted benefit HRA and provides you with what you need to know to establish one or both of them.

Renée practices in the McNees Labor & Employment Practice Group where she focuses on executive compensation and employee benefits. She assists both private and publicly traded companies in the negotiation of employment agreements, severance agreements and plans, and director and executive compensation programs. She designs, assists in the implementation of, and analyzes non-qualified deferred compensation plans, equity compensation plans, and cafeteria plans. Clients also seek her assistance with the administration, compliance, and termination of defined contribution plans, defined benefit plans, profit sharing plans, 401(k) plans, and employee stock purchase plans.
