McNees Attorney Esch McCombie Among CPBJ's 2019 Forty Under 40 Award Recipients

HARRISBURG, Pa. – (July 26, 2019) McNees Wallace & Nurick LLC is pleased to announce Esch McCombie is among Central Penn Business Journal's 2019 Forty Under 40 award recipients for his commitment to business growth, professional excellence and community service.

He and the other recipients will be recognized at an awards event at the Hilton Harrisburg on Monday, October 7, 2019.

Esch practices in the McNees Real Estate and Pipeline & Oil/Gas Infrastructure Practice Groups. He focuses his practice on land use matters, including obtaining permits and approvals at the municipal, county and state level. Using his experience and relationships, he reaches favorable outcomes for clients in matters involving zoning, subdivision, land development, storm water, noise and traffic, among others. Esch has assisted commercial, industrial and residential developers, educational institutions, pipeline and other oil and gas related companies, telecommunication companies, small businesses and start-ups. Representative projects Esch recently advised and assisted clients with include warehouse and distribution centers, residential communities of all types, urban redevelopment projects, craft breweries and event venues, car dealerships, pipeline projects and solar infrastructure.
