

Secrest Wardle Welcomes Associate Kaitlynn M. Milroy to Troy Location

Kaitlynn M. Milroy joins Secrest Wardle's Troy office as an Associate. She is a member of the Firm's Motor Vehicle Litigation, Premises Liability, and General Negligence Practice Groups. Ms. Milroy has substantial experience defending insureds and insurance companies in first and third-party no-fault matters including assigned claims and catastrophic/Michigan Catastrophic Claims Association level cases. Her knowledge encompasses pre-litigation through litigation. Additionally, Ms. Milroy has successfully handled trucking matters, fraud investigation matters pertaining to fire losses, and subrogation matters involving rental cars.

Ms. Milroy earned her Juris Doctor from Valparaiso University School of Law. During law school, she served as Vice President of the International Law Society and was an active member of the Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity. She further volunteered as a student judge in a local teen court program during her law school career, in which she mentored local youth interested in the legal profession and mediated disciplinary matters in the local school district. She obtained her Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Theory and Constitutional Democracy with a specialization in Western European Studies from James Madison College at Michigan State University. As an undergraduate student, Ms. Milroy participated in a summer study abroad program at the University of London and the University of Edinburgh, in which she studied the politics of the European Union.

Kaitlynn Milroy is licensed to practice law in the State of Michigan and in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan. She is a member of the State Bar of Michigan's Negligence Law, Insurance and Indemnity Law, and Young Lawyers Sections.
