

ELLEN REPASKY

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, ACCOUNT DIRECTOR, KILGANNON

Ellen Repasky serves as Senior Vice President and Account Director at Kilgannon, an Atlanta-based advertising agency, where she manages the NYCM Insurance and SouthernLINC Wireless accounts. Since joining Kilgannon in 1998, Ellen has held a number of positions, including Account Supervisor, Account Planner and Director of Marketing.

This is Ellen's second stint at the agency. She also worked at the agency during the early 1990s, when it was known as The Kilgannon Group. Since her return to Kilgannon, she has helped develop a number of award-winning campaigns for Attorneys' Title Insurance Fund and Tucker Federal Bank, as well as direct-marketing programs for Southern Company Gas.

Ellen began her career in advertising at a privately held agency in Stamford, CT, and she also worked at Clarion Direct. Throughout her career, she has handled accounts in a wide range of industries, from healthcare to technology, representing well-known brands such as Bristol-Myers, IBM, Mitsubishi and Southwestern Bell.

In addition, Ellen has applied her expertise to help develop campaigns for several non-profit organizations, including Leukemia and Lymphoma Society's Team in Training, Partnership Against Domestic Violence and Prevent Child Abuse Georgia.
