Barnwell Whaley’s Judith Carberry named president-elect of South Carolina Association of Legal Administrators

Charleston, SC, United States – Judith Carberry, Firm Administrator of Barnwell Whaley Patterson & Helms, LLC, has been named the president-elect of the South Carolina Association of Legal Administrators (SCALA), an official chapter of the Association of Legal Administrators (ALA). The SCALA and ALA are leaders for the business of law, focused on the delivery of cutting-edge management and leadership products and services to the global legal community. “Involvement in the ALA and SCALA is crucial for any growing firm as technologies and services continue to evolve in today’s fast paced business world,” commented Barnwell Whaley managing member attorney B.C. Killough. “Our established law firm continues to stay at the forefront of today’s technologies as we serve today’s businesses and professionals due to the continuing educations and effective management of our team led by Ms. Carberry.”

Ms. Carberry is no stranger to the ALA organization as she previously served as the President of the New Jersey chapter, as well as a member of the Board of Directors. “ALA and SCALA provide timely, relevant information and networking opportunities that are critical to us in the business of law. Their educational and leadership focus are unsurpassed in our field,” Carberry commented. She received her Bachelor of Science at East Stroudsburg University and continued post graduate studies at Villanova University. Mrs. Carberry has over twenty-five years of experience as a law firm administrator in firms in New Jersey and South Carolina.
