

BROWN MOSKOWITZ & KALLEN

We are pleased to announce the addition of two new partners

Lora L. Fong
and
Shalom D. Stone

Lora Fong and Shalom Stone are experienced practitioners whom we have known and respected for years and who bring tremendous experience and talent to our growing firm.

Lora represents clients in general commercial litigation and contract matters. She has particular depth in technology law, including cloud computing, privacy and cybersecurity, as well as intellectual property issues involving trademarks, copyrights and trade secrets. Lora also works with companies to develop corporate ethics and HR compliance programs. Lora is a member of the Board of Governors of Rutgers University as well as of its Board of Trustees. An active member of the New Jersey State Bar Association, Lora is a past member of its Board of Trustees, and presently serves on its Nominating Committee, Internet & Computer Law Committee, Privacy Law Committee and Diversity Committee. She is a former President of the Asian Pacific American Lawyers Association of New Jersey, and a former Vice President of the New Jersey Women Lawyers Association. Lora currently serves on the New Jersey State Advisory Committee to the United States Commission on Civil Rights.

Shalom has extensive experience in business litigation, white collar criminal defense, legal ethics and appeals. His practice covers a broad range of business interests, including securities, RICO, real estate, franchises, consumer fraud and insurance. In 2007, Shalom was nominated by President George W. Bush to the Third Circuit Court of Appeals. He is the former Chair of the Federal Practice and Procedure Section of the New Jersey State Bar Association, and a former member of the Lawyers' Advisory Committee of the District Court of New Jersey. In December 2013, Shalom was recognized by the New Jersey State Bar Association for his successful pro bono representation of the NJSBA in Nostrama v. Santiago, 213 N.J. 109 (2013). He was selected by New Jersey Super Lawyers in the area of Business Litigation in 2005-2014.*
