

Enservio Webinar to Present Best Practices for Valuing Oriental Rugs

NEEDHAM, Mass. – May 17, 2016 – Is that a $75,000 Antique Mohtashem Kashan rug, or a $12,000 Kashan rug? Is the policyholder's claimed item hand-woven or machine-made? How do you determine the relative worth of a high-end but water-logged Persian runner? Claims adjusters and other claims professionals interested in learning more about valuing high-quality rugs can register for a 30-minute webinar May 25 at 11:30 am EDT. To register click here.

"Best Practices for Valuing Oriental Rugs" will be presented by Rosemary Kress, a review appraiser with 15 years of experience in auctions and fine arts for Enservio, the leading provider of contents claim management software, payments solutions, and inventory and valuation services for property insurers.

Attendees will learn:

- Rug styles, construction types and primary value drivers
- Best practices for inventorying and image capture
- Making determinations and valuation methodologies

Enservio hosts a comprehensive series on best practices for valuing homeowner contents. Designed to equip claims professionals with the knowledge they need to make more accurate assessments of lost or damaged contents, Enservio webinars cover a wide array of various contents valuation challenges including firearms and ammo, golf equipment, antique furniture, power tools, musical keyboards, fine art forgeries, and counterfeit and contraband items. To access the full series of on-demand webinars please visit: www.enservio.com/resources/videos.

The webinar is intended for adjusters, claim reps, claim managers, claim supervisors, claim directors and anyone dealing with non-restorable contents claims.
