“Law & Order’ for Volleyball Officials” Comes to New Jersey

Alan Goldberger, a New Jersey attorney and the author of "Sports Officiating: A Legal Guide," will be a featured speaker at the forthcoming Officials' Clinic of the Garden-Empire Volleyball Association, to be held December 4 on the campus of Stevens Institute of Technology in Hoboken, New Jersey. Goldberger will present "Law & Order on Your Volleyball Court" to GEVA referees and line judges.

Goldberger serves as counsel to GEVA, the Professional Association of Volleyball Officials, and other sports and officiating organizations. He officiated college and high school basketball for over 30 years; as well as umpiring college baseball for the Eastern College Athletic Conference; and working as a high school football official.

About Garden-Empire Volleyball Association, Inc.

The Garden Empire Volleyball Association (GEVA) is the local Regional Volleyball Authority of USA Volleyball, the National Governing Body of Volleyball, and as such is responsible for the promotion and growth of volleyball in New Jersey, Long Island, and the Greater Metropolitan Area of New York City (to include Westchester, Rockland, Dutchess, Putnam, and Orange Counties).

GEVA promotes volleyball by offering competition, training, and education in a multitude of disciplines. We authorize clubs who in turn offer training programs, and competitive opportunities on many levels. We authorize and conduct indoor tournaments throughout the fall & winter months and authorize outdoor, beach and grass tournaments in the spring & summer months. GEVA conducts Adult and Junior Division programs including Junior High Performance and Paralympic Volleyball.
