HENDERSON FRANKLIN ELECTS BARRITT AS STOCKHOLDER

Fort Myers, Florida — The law firm of Henderson, Franklin, Starnes & Holt, P.A. is pleased to announce that Attorney Amanda Barritt has been elected a stockholder. Managing Partner Denis Noah shares “Amanda has a commanding knowledge of Association Law and is regularly consulted by many of our clients, including real estate developers, condominium associations and property owners’ associations.” Attorney David Fowler, Chair of Henderson Franklin’s Real Estate Division shares “Amanda is a highly skilled attorney who is dedicated to finding the best solutions for her clients. Her professionalism, responsiveness, and experience in handling real estate transactions and development and community association representation make her a valuable asset to her clients and our firm.”

Barritt joined the firm in 2004 and concentrates her practice in real estate law and, more specifically, in the areas of residential and commercial condominium and property associations, real estate transactions, title issues, easements, contract preparation, and real estate development. She frequently writes on these topics on Henderson Franklin's blog, The Legal Scoop on Southwest Florida Real Estate. Barritt is AV rated by Martindale Hubbell.

Barritt is a member of the Real Estate Investment Society, Real Property Probate & Trust Section of The Florida Bar, Lee County Association for Woman Lawyers, and Lee County Bar Association. She also serves on the Board of Trustees of Cypress Lake United Methodist Church and is a member of the Advisory Board of Bright Beginnings Early School.

Barritt received her undergraduate degree from Auburn University (B.I.D., cum laude, 1999) and her law degree from Florida State University (J.D., cum laude, 2003). She can be reached at 239.344.1108 or via email at amanda.barritt@henlaw.com.
