FORT MYERS LITIGATION EXPERT MICHAEL CORSO TO DISCUSS THE “RISE OF THE DRONES” AT ROTARY LUNCHEON

Fort Myers, Florida — On June 22, litigation expert Michael Corso will discuss the “Rise of the Drones - The Growing Proliferation of Unmanned Aircraft in the National Airspace System” at the Rotary Fort Myers South luncheon at Crowne Plaza Bell Tower Shops in Fort Myers. The discussion will explore the current state of the laws and future legal needs of the aviation community now that unmanned aircraft systems are becoming widely used in commercial applications.

Corso has been Florida Bar Board Certification in Civil Trial Law for over 30 years and serves as chair of Henderson Franklin’s Tort & Insurance Litigation division. He focuses his practice in matters involving product liability and the defense of non-medical professionals such as lawyers, accountants, architects, engineers and surveyors. Corso frequently speaks throughout the United States on issues regarding the defense of non-medical professionals, law office risk management issues, and drones.

Corso has received much recognition throughout his legal career, including the 2011 Outstanding Aerospace Engineer Award by Purdue University, the Florida Defense Lawyers Association President’s Award, the Defense Research Institute’s Exceptional Performance Citation, as well as being named to Florida Super Lawyers® and Florida Trend magazine’s Legal Elite®. Corso is also AV-rated by Martindale-Hubbell. He is a member of the American Institute of Architects, Florida Engineering Society and past president of the Florida Defense Lawyers Association.

Prior to joining to Henderson Franklin, Corso was in the United States Air Force, ending his military career as a Captain in the USAF JAG program. He received his undergraduate degree in Aeronautics and Astronautics from Purdue University (B.S., 1971) and his law degree from Villanova University (J.D., 1974). Corso can be reached at 239-344-1170 or via email at michael.corso@henlaw.com.
