FORT MYERS ATTORNEY CARLOS KELLY APPOINTED TO NINTH TERM ON FLORIDA BAR EMINENT DOMAIN COMMITTEE

Fort Myers, Florida - The law firm of Henderson, Franklin, Starnes & Holt, P.A. is pleased to announce that Attorney Carlos A. Kelly, a stockholder in the firm's Commercial Litigation practice group, has been re-appointed to The Florida Bar's Eminent Domain Committee. This will be Kelly's ninth year of service on the Committee. Kelly is also a member of The Association of Eminent Domain Professionals (AEDP), an organization of professionals specializing in the field of eminent domain.

In addition to eminent domain matters, Kelly handles other real property disputes, business claims, including fraud and contract lawsuits, shareholder disputes, and other claims between business partners. He has been published by The Florida Bar and writes on eminent domain topics on Henderson Franklin's blog, The Legal Scoop on Southwest Florida Real Estate, and is one of three co-editors for the Eminent Domain Committee's newsletter.

Kelly volunteers in the community and serves on the Southwest Florida Museum of History Foundation Board and on SalusCare, Inc.'s Finance Committee. He is also a member of the Real Estate Investment Society.

Kelly received his undergraduate degree from Florida State University, magna cum laude, in 1993 and his law degree from Emory University in 1997. He can be reached at 239.344.1326 or via email at carlos.kelly@henlaw.com.
