MADDIN, HAUSER, ROTH & HELLER, P.C. ADDS THREE ATTORNEYS TO ITS GROWING TEAM

Southfield, Mich. – Dec. 16, 2015 – Maddin, Hauser, Roth & Heller, P.C., is pleased to announce the addition of attorneys Sarah J. Brutman, Karen E. Plaza, and Aaron M. Swedler to its growing team.

The announcement was made by the firm's President and CEO, Steven D. Sallen. "Sarah, Karen, and Aaron bring a great deal of specialized legal expertise to our growing team. Each of them expands our firm's capabilities in offering clients sound legal counsel and solutions across multiple practice areas," said Sallen.

Brutman, an associate and a member of the firm's Defense and Insurance Coverage Practice Group, concentrates her practice on commercial insurance coverage and liability defense. A cum laude graduate of Wayne State University Law School in 2004, Brutman earned her Bachelor of Arts in Political Science summa cum laude from the University of Detroit Mercy in 1999. Brutman was named as a Super Lawyer – Rising Star for four consecutive years and was recognized by Hour Magazine as a Top Woman Lawyer in 2013 and 2014, and is a member of Claims & Litigation Management Alliance.

Plaza is an associate in the firm's Consumer Finance Regulatory Compliance and Real Property Litigation Practice Group. She has extensive litigation, research, and briefing experience in the areas of real property law, commercial litigation, consumer compliance regulations, creditor's rights, and bankruptcy. Plaza has successfully represented clients in matters involving claims arising under the Truth in Lending Act, Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, Fair Credit Reporting Act, and Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act and related state law claims. Plaza's experience also involves quiet title actions, contested foreclosures and evictions. Plaza received her Juris Doctor from the University of Detroit Mercy School of Law in 2008, and her Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Michigan in 2005.

Aaron M. Swedler

Swedler is Of Counsel and will help to expand the capabilities of the firm's Healthcare Practice Group. Swedler's practice tackles a wide range of healthcare recovery problems, including fully insured and self-insured employee benefit plans and commercial health insurance, medical claims coding and administrative matters, auto accidents and no-fault insurance and commercial liability insurance, government-funded programs and HMO(s), TPA(s) and stop-loss sureties, and PPO(s) and provider or network agreements. Swedler received his Juris Doctor in 2006 from Cleveland-Marshall College of Law, his Masters of Business Administration in 2006 from Cleveland State University, and his Bachelor of Science degree in business from Miami University (OH).
