MARSHALL DENNEHEY RECEIVES "DISTINGUISHED DEFENSE FIRM AWARD" FROM THE PENNSYLVANIA DEFENSE INSTITUTE

July 31, 2015 -- Marshall Dennehey Warner Coleman & Goggin received the "Distinguished Defense Firm Award" at the annual meeting of the Pennsylvania Defense Institute (PDI) on Thursday, July 16 in Bedford, PA. The inaugural award honors a civil defense firm devoted to professionalism, dedication to the practice of law, promotion of the highest ideals of justice in the community and service to the PDI.

Marshall Dennehey has been a member of the PDI for approximately 30 years. Comprised of attorneys, insurance executives and adjusters, the organization is dedicated to excellence in civil defense litigation through professional development, education and commitment to the administration of justice. Over the years, many Marshall Dennehey attorneys have been active in the PDI, including Matthew P. Keris, shareholder in the firm's Scranton office, who just completed his term as president.

"We are excited to receive this award," said Thomas A. Brophy, Marshall Dennehey's President & CEO. "The Pennsylvania Defense Institute is the voice of the defense bar in Pennsylvania. As a firm committed to defense litigation matters, we're pleased to be recognized by the PDI. With 31 active members from our firm, and many involved in the organization's leadership, Marshall Dennehey is proud to be a part of the PDI's history, and future."
